Return Reference	Explanation
Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	Scholarship Funds: The foundation grants academic scholarships to qualifying students pursuing post-secondary education. Funds are paid jointly to the student and their post-secondary institution to ensure funds are used appropriately for education related expenses. Grant Funds: The organization grants funds to Carmel Clay School educators, school leaders, or district leaders to benefit student learning. It approves and promulgates grant guidelines, promotes the grant program on its website, provides grant writing workshops, reviews applications, and evaluates requests based on established criteria. The grant committee recommends grants for approval by the general board. Recipients receive a letter of agreement including instructions for documenting their project, completing an evaluation, and providing credit to the foundation. The foundation pays grant funds directly to the school district, submitting necessary documentation to receive funds. The district manages the distribution of funds and reimbursement requests.
