Form 990, Part III, Line 4b: Promoting high quality and effective processes for dental education, dental licensure and credentialing. This is accomplished through monitoring and disseminating.

Information on dental education and licensure issues and conducting studies. There are also ongoing liaison activities with related organizations which also serve dental education and licensure including the recognized dental specialty ocertifying boards, sponsoring organizations, and allied dental organizations. ADA seeks to improve the quality of continuing education available for dentists. ADA accredited 1.649 education programs and nearly 47,500 individuals sat for certifying exams.

Develop and produce ADA's annual meeting which includes scientific programs, general audience programs, and hands-on workshops for dentists and their staff. There are also special events such as the distinguished speaker series and keynote address for attendees of the annual session. There is a technical exhibition (ADA World Marketplace) for attendees to experience and test dental products and services for use in their dental practices. In 2019, there were over 31,000 attendees, receiving more than 37,000.

Return Reference Explanation To stay on top of federal issues that affect dentistry and the public's oral health, the ADA maintains a staff of Schedule C, Part III-B Lobbying Activities legislative and policy experts close to Capitol Hill Proximity, experience and representation of the vast majority of dentists make the ADA uniquely effective in lobbying for the dental profession. Many other critical issues are decided by legislators and regulators at the state level. Although the ADA does not lobby at the state level, we do provide expertise and resources to help state dental societies create and effectively pursue their own policy agendas. At both the federal and state levels of government, we constantly monitor dentists and the patients they serve

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	Deferred taxes are established for temporary differences between the financial reporting b asis and the tax basis of assets and liabilities. Deferred taxes are based upon enacted ta x rates, which would apply during the period which taxes become payable or recoverable, and the adjustment of cumulative deferred taxes for any changes in the tax rate. The Association accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. ASC Topic 740 addresses the determination of how tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the consolidated financial statements. Under A SC Topic 740, the Association must recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit its recognized in the consolidated financial statements from such a position are measured be ased on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. ASC Topic 740 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest, and penalties on income taxes and accounting in interim periods and accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. As of December 31, 2019, there was no liability related to uncertain tax positions for federal and state income taxes.
