Return Reference	Explanation
Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	The Christian Service Center (CSC) interviews clients requesting assistance to determine need. In addition, individuals requesting food must meet eligibility requirements based on the household size and gross income as determined by the Food Bank of West Texas. Assistance given to clients is documented in a network shared by other agencies in the community to monitor frequency and amount of aid received. Clients are allowed to return to the CSC for assistance based on policies in place for certain types of assistance (e.g. only once every four months for clothing, once every two months for food, and once every six months for household items, etc.)
