The supported org has a significant voice (as its Investment Committee takes part in the investment strategy planning along with the support ing org) but not ability to direct. Since the supporting org contribut es a significant level of support to the budget of the supported org, the investment objective/risk tolerances of the supporting org are con sidered along with overall goals of supported org.
2
The trustee has regular contact with the supported organization (benef iciary) that goes beyond providing statements, and occasional correspo ndence. The supported organization's Investment Committee participates in the trustee meetings and actively participates in discussions/plan ning around the investments.
