Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Protecting Civil Rights Civil rights advocacy is at the heart of what CAIR does CAIR protects the civil rights of all Americans regardless of faith Our civil rights department attempts to resolve reports of discrimination through mediation, negotiation, or, if necessary, through legal action In 2019, handled 764 civil rights cases including workplace discrimination, FBI abuses, travel restrictions and hate crimes While focusing primarily on American Muslims, we have established a reputation as an advocate for any group or individual whose civil rights are in jeopardy and for partnering with local minority and legal aid organizations We work with many partners to provide programs and legal services to the Muslim community Handled 475 Immigrants' Rights cases including asylum, permanent residency, citizenship or reunification with families as well as victims of human trafficking, serious crimes, etc We helped clients achieve independence, security and full participation in American society

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Education/Training Part of CAIR's mission is to build coalitions that promote justice and mutual understanding To that end, much of our work involves community education and outreach through workshops and training, which has included scheduling CAIR staff and resident experts for volunteer speaking engagements In 2019, CAIR-HOUSTON conducted 358 educational workshops and presentations and held 926 community outreach events Organized educational, sensitivity and diversity workshops for employers, educators and organizations to present accurate information about Islam/Muslims and offer suggestions for religious accomodation We strive to educate others about Islam while building strong relationships with other faith communities Conducted 456 media campaigns with local and national media to ensure an accurate portrayal of Islam and Muslims is presented to the American public We monitor local, national and international media in part to challenge negative stereotypes, but also to applaud and encourage positive representations of Islam and Muslims

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Civic Engagement CAIR-HOUSTON works with Muslim youth and young adults in becoming progressive members of society through community service and active engagement. The We CAIR initiative reaches out to the community every month with volunteer activities such as neighborhood cleanups, retirement home visits, and aiding local citizens during difficult and trying times. CAIR establishes and maintains working relationships with local, state, and federal governmental institutions and representatives. In addition, CAIR conducts voter registration drives to encourage citizens to participate in elections. Engaged with elected officials to advocate for civil and human rights legislation on behalf of the American Muslim community. We developed campaigns to mobilize the Muslim community and facilitated awareness around issues relevant to our policy agenda and advocacy through state and local efforts and our annual Muslim Day at the state Capitol. Conducted the 12th Annual Muslim Youth Leadership Program, in which 41 high school students attended the state Capitol in Sacramento for a 4-day training. It featured workshops on community organizing and advocacy, public speaking, and an opportunity to conduct a mock legislative session in the state Senate.
