Other	PART III, LINE 30 - POLICY DEVELOPMENT - 1 The company has a very engaged board of directors and committee structure to develop policy and then implement those policies. Company members take pride in their process of inviting members to submit issues, which are important to agriculture. These ideas are filtered through a process, which ultimately allows our members to be actively involved and participate. The company's policy committee then evaluates the response and develops a draft resolution reflecting the members input. All members of the company were invited to a special policy meeting to discuss and amend (if desired) and adopt as official policy. The company's voting delegate then champions those resolutions at the annual statewide policy adoption conference. The organization then lobbies for enactment of policies, regulations, and laws to support those adopted resolutions. Success in this company is achieved by being actively engaged in activities at all levels of the government at all county, state, and national level. The company also invited a County Board of Supervisor, County Auditor, and County Assessor to different board meetings, they discussed current happenings at the county level and ways the company can continue to be involved.
