Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Board members are required to complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement annually, and it is usually done at the annual board meeting. The chairperson and secretary to the board oversees compliance with this requirement. Employees with purchasing authority and/or ability to influence purchasing decisions are assigned the conflict of interest disclosure (COI) which must be completed online. Periodically through the year, each entity's corporate responsibility contact person (with the help of the entity's learning management system coordinator) sends department managers a list of employees who have not yet completed their COI so they can remind employees and ensure the employees have time in their schedule to complete the required course. Resolution of any conflicts that are disclosed must be documented and kept on file at each entity. Their supervisors verify required course completion prior to year end, often in conjunction with the performance review process.
