Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Myanmar (Burma) Program: Partners Asia worked with local groups and informal networks of community organizations all around Myanmar (Burma), implementing projects with the shared goal of strengthening civil society among the most marginalized. Opportunities, risks, and needs vary greatly in different communities, so Partners Asia backs trusted local partners who identify appropriate solutions, with projects addressing formal and non-formal education, women and child health, gender equality, village infrastructure, and legal rights for the disadvantaged. Partners Asia also funded community-led research, supported network building, and offered training and one-on-one assistance to help partners take their organizations to the next level.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Thailand Program: Partners Asia directly engaged local leaders and community-based organizations all along the Thailand-Myanmar border and migrants in urban centers. As in Myanmar, opportunities, risks, and needs differ depending on community. In Thailand, Partners Asias partners worked with people who fled poverty and/or fighting in Myanmar, tailoring projects given their unique local knowledge that include: formal and non-formal schooling for Myanmar and stateless children; humanitarian emergency support to communities severely affected by fighting; assistance for migrants to obtain work permits and legal documentation; free medical care for poor migrants unrecognized as refugees. Partners Asia offers individual support to local group leaders to improve programs and operations, and is building networks across the border into Myanmar.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Gender Equality: Inclusion, human rights, and justice for all. Our Gender Program aims to strengthen the positions of women and LGBTQIs within their communities and encourage their aspirations, while promoting tolerance and respect. Our multi-pronged approach includes grants addressing immediate needs, mentorship for emerging leaders, networking opportunities, and communications training. This support better enables women and LGBTQIs to engage with the Myanmar government and international human rights mechanisms to raise awareness and advocate for their rights. Our direct grants also support the establishment of women's savings groups, access to digital financial services, family planning, and more.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, Partners Asia is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the organization and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold; the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that Partners Asia has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of December 31, 2019, Partners Asia does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary. Partners Asia has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that the organization continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. Partners Asia may periodically receive unrelated business income requiring the organization to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, Partners Asia calculates and accrues the applicable taxes payable.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4: Leadership and Community Development===== =====Core to our mission: Mentoring a deep bench of local leaders. How: Local leadership is more important than ever, as the country grapples with the daunting challenges of a tenuous democracy and humanitarian crises. Identifying and investing in leaders from mobile and ethnic minority communities is essential, to ensure their voices are heard and their rights protected. Our Leadership Fund expressly initiated to develop a new generation of leaders has already aided 800 people in advocacy, campaigning, journalism, social media messaging, and organizational management. We support them to build the knowledge, skills, confidence, and networks they need. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5: Migration, Displacement, and Emergency Responses=====Were helping displaced communities find a place and a voice.How: We are witnessing growing crises in Myanmar and along its borders. As people are forced or move away from their home communities across borders or into urban slums, they become ever more vulnerable. Their very numbers are formidable: more than 720,000 recent Rohingya refugees, an unknown number of internally displaced people in Rakhine State and another 679,000+ in other parts of the country, 103,000+ refugees in camps along the Thailand-Myanmar border, and millions of unregistered migrants who have fled political and economic conflict. They struggle to access basic services, shelter, and protection from exploitation.Partners Asia supports these communities in their efforts to organize around basic needs, such as life-saving food, shelter, and water for refugees and IDPs, and access to education and health care. We also help them advocate for their legal status, including helping to procure ID cards, work permits, passports, and birth certificates. Using Participatory Action Research, they're able to document the issues within their own communities, analyze the realities they face, and devise strategies with government and other stakeholders for change.Education=====Migrant children and those who live in rural areas or city slums often have limited access to education; we want them in school and for their schooling to count. How: Access to a basic education is not assured for many children in the communities we reach. We support non-formal schools in refugee settlements, city slums, monasteries, and even in plantations all to help prevent children from getting lost amid the ethnic tensions and displacements. Beyond the classrooms, we back efforts to standardize accreditation so that children who study in non-formal schools can have their education recognized in both Thailand and Myanmar. Keeping children in school deters human trafficking, labor exploitation, early marriage, and the cycle of poverty.
