PART VI

7a The governing body votes on board members as they come on the board

8a All of the meetings are documented through minutes and then distributed to each board member. They are also kept on file in the director's office

8b Sub-committees present their findings to the complete board. These findings are part of the minutes of each meeting

11a. The Form 990 and subsequent Schedules are shared with board members electronically and members are able to ask questions about the documents at the board meetings

12a-c Time is spent discussing conflict of interest whenever decisions are made by the board. The director allows and encourages questions and discussion whenever potential conflicts arise
