Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	Upon making grants to any foreign agency, a relationship is built between the staff of The Grace Institute and that agency. The agency must agree with the mission statement and purposes of The Grace Institute before work can begin. When work is begun to train pastors with theological education, regular visits are made to the agency in their country. Other forms of communication take place regularly. The agency keeps records of students and physical equipment. They also keep records of the students' progress. Photos and spreadsheets are kept. Photos of receipts are sent. At times, qualitative studies are created to see the progress of the students.
