Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

HBCC is the only organization in Orange County focused exclusively on a system of care around Collaborative Problem Solving (CPS). HBCC works proactively to empower adults with the knowledge of this evidence-based approach for strengthening and improving the lives of those who present with behavior challenges. This approach helps with parenting, teaching and treating those with difficult-to-manage behaviors who are having trouble meeting the demands of home life and school expectations. OC is a leader in this innovative model that has proven its efficacy at all levels of caregiver support. Locally and nationally, this approach realizes improved outcomes in treatment and ultimately improves all relationships.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

We had a large donation that allowed us to purchase a building in Tustin to use for our program. The extra office spaces are rented out and we can use that income to help sustain our program. The building will also allow us to expand if we need to. This generous gift has given our program stability and recognition in the community, allowing us to serve even more families.
