THE MUSIC STAND46-4137592*Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The Music Stand was able to continue our concert series this year by presenting a Christmas concert. We had the largest audience to date.

We partnered with Love Ministries in Dallas to launch our creative music education series. The program was presented in South Dallas, where music education programs & live music performances are limited. We worked with Love Ministries to bring in a Steinway piano to a local South Dallas community recreation center. To our knowledge, it was the first time a presentation of this kind had been done. The audience was made up of youth, young adults & adults. Plans are underway to present our creative music education program in other areas.

Although our resources of emergency funding for professional musicians was limited this year, we were able to help at least one individual battling a rare cancer who had to stop working due to extensive medical treatments and frequent hospitalization. We were able to provide funds for basic living needs at a crucial point in time. Our goal is to raise more awareness about the needs of professional musicians and increase our resources for emergency funding so we can have a greater impact. We are happy to report our personal development for professional musicians program is holding steady. This year we connected with two new community partners, a world-class fitness & wellness facility in Dallas and a certified personal trainer, to extend this program to include fitness and whole health. Professional musicians engaged in non-competitive fitness activities and learned about simple workouts. The aim is to help them prioritize fitness in their busy schedules. Our next goal is to plan a health fair specifically for professional musicians. The personal development program is offered at no cost to the professional musicians, and because of partner support this year, we were able to keep our expenses low for this initiative.

All in all, The Music Stand programs are growing stronger with an increase every year so far. We continue to look for funding sources to ensure our programs thrive, and we intend to expand our community partnerships. We are grateful for the impact we have made, and we are excited about what the future holds for The Music Stand.

Part IV List of Officers, Directors, Trustees, and Key Employees

We have yet to secure enough funds to hire and maintain a staff, but we still hope to be able to do so in the near future, especially with our program advancements and operations expanding year to year. This year The Music Stand team dedicated more time overall, especially to execute our spring fundraiser effectively, improve donor relations, secure sponsorships, and search for appropriate funding opportunities.
