Return Reference	Explanation

If the Board or designated Board Committee determines that a potential conflict exists related to a transaction requiring action by the Board, the policy calls for the Board member with the potential conflict to abstain from voting. In addition, a majority of the disinterested Directors must find that the transaction is fair and reasonable to the operation and that the organization could not reasonably find a more advantageous transaction from another entity without a potential conflict. The policy requires disclosure of potential conflicts to the Board or designated committee even for transactions not requiring board action
