Explanation: Our Treasurer prepared our financial records for 2019 and I, Christopher Steed, President volunteered to enter the data and file the report. At the time I was residing in Guatemala managing our operations and relief efforts on the ground. My family had to return to the USA for personal reasons and in the midst of all that was happening, I simply forgot to file the return for our organization. I realized my error when I went to file the 2020 return and am filing together with that return.
