Bridge Disability Network, Inc. is a 501(c) 3 Public Charity funded through individual donations, grants and fundraising activities.

Bridge Disability Network assists children with disabilities by providing financial assistance for physical, occupational, behavioral, or speech/language therapy to children in Miami-Dade & Broward Counties not covered by public or private insurance.

Medicaid and private insurance are limited and often times families with a disabled child have a need for therapy that goes beyond what is covered. Our clients struggle to pay for therapy sessions or often times drop out of therapy because they can't afford it.

We came together as an organization in 2014 and formed Bridge Disability Network, Inc. to help meet this need in the community.

We have been helping people with disabilities by providing resources, referrals and services to families that struggle to cover the cost for treatment. We provide financial assistance in the form of therapy scholarships for speech, occupational, physical and behavioral therapies, therapy equipment or respite care.
