Our mission is to empower, educate and encourage the most vulnerable children and families in the Antelope Valley. Our vision is to spread joy to children and families thru practical service. Some of those served are children and families in homeless shelters, transitional homes domestic violence shelters and foster care. We have two (2) programs to accomplish the mission. F.I.T. "Families in Transition" program and YL4L "Young Learners For Life". Through these two programs we host donation drives (for career clothing, shoes, purses and books), adopt-a-school to meet young at-risk scholars needs and provide career development services for vulnerable families.

The Project Joy college scholarship fund assists youth who have overcome extreme odds as well

Both programs combined to service just over 2,400 people in 2019 with clothing and counseling.
