Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

La Placita is an open Market at Bethany Park. The 2019 session started on May 5th and as a successful community program CABA received the approval for re-producing it every other week until the end of its session in the month of September. It features vendors, entertainment, and the opportunity for members of the community to connect. La Placita is an open-door venue for community members to explore their ability to produce and commercialize any given product without the pressure of major upfront investment. Within La Placita's operations, each vending start-up is guided and prompted to engage in learning the commercialization of products and services. Product presentation, market analysis and forward planning are imbedded in the process for learning how to build a path to financial success. During 2019, nearly 40 local vendors and organizations took advantage of La Placita at Bethany Park. It served over 20,000 residents while promoting community engagement and the incubation of future businesses for the Central Avenue Commercial Corridor.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The third annual Day of the Dead event was held on November 3rd, 2019. Businesses and organizations participate in an offerings display contest to celebrate tradition while promoting their services and products. A panel of 5 judges from members of the community visited each offerings display and selected 3 winners. Approximately 15,000 people concentrated on Central Avenue to participate in the celebration.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The Free Wheels for Kids program is a bicycling program offered in Wyandotte County to elementary and middle school children, teaching and promoting bike riding and safety skills while learning civic involvement, community resources and land management.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 10,267 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

The Summer Mentoring Program provides 4th year high school students with mentors, situational experience and good work practices designed to prepare and to focus the student on personal successes. The mentoring program helps students build self-esteem giving young persons the inner strength to resist negative peer pressure. It also gives the community positive student, resident, and business interaction. The students are paid a stipend after completion of the contract. The program is open to Central Avenue High School Seniors. The promotion of higher education is now a specific goal, the generation of personal and community pride and the braking of self-imposed and cultural barriers are embedded into the revised program's structure. The program has been well received by the community leadership. New leaders and professionals from the community expressed their interest in their participation as mentors. During 2019, 8 students participated in the program.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 5,133 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 1,894)

The Flavors of Central Tour is a food tour of the Central Avenue that took place on June 29. With 15 Central Avenue businesses participating, 32 guests from the food industry and 52 tickets sold the event was a success. Participants were able to try the a variety of the foods the Central Avenue has to offer.
