rural communities, protects the environment, and promotes a safe, diverse, and stable food supply To achieve these goals, America needs a healthy family farm-based system of agriculture Targeted, top-notch legal information and advocacy are indispensable in the struggle to defend family-based agriculture and secure social and economic justice for farmers. To provide this service the Kansas Farm Bureau Legal Foundation (Legal Foundation) used more than 20 volunteers

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a The Legal Foundation contributed funds to both Kansas State and outreach within the state, and specifically, with hopes of returning highly trained agricultural lawyers back to rural parts of the state The Legal Foundation also partnered with Kansas State University and Washburn University School of Law for the 4th annual Agricultural Law and Business Symposium. The Symposium educates legal and tax practitioners on current agricultural law, taxation, and economic issues, so they are better able to serve farmers and ranchers The Symposium has been attended by over 300 persons several state Farm Bureau organizations to research and develop a response to issues regarding agriculture and the Endangered Species Act These efforts have focused on educating our members so they are aware of these issues and informed of the available practices that can be adopted to promote preservation of different species, compiling information that can be written into state-wide species conservation plans, and communicating to federal agencies that
