PART VI, #2, PAGE 6

My family started the foundation in 1998 in memory of our late mother to continue her legacy and spirit of helping those in need, and to honor her belief in the power of education as an important tool to achieving success in life. Of note: she only finished 5th grade and worked as a maid at the college where she ensured that her 7 daughters and 2 granddaughters she reared attended. We all sit on the Board, and our descendants will follow us. Non-family members also sit on the Board that is all-volunteer. Additionally, we have many volunteers who help with projects and programs. NO ONE IS EVER PAID FOR THEIR SERVICES. My sisters and I put in the funds to cover all operating costs. All members of the foundation Board of Directors and Committees have equal rights and all must be committed to adhering to our Mission, Vision, Policies and Bylaws. No member or their children can receive our grants or scholarships. In our 22 years of operation, this structure has worked well. Active projects and programs have increased and we are well on our way to our goal of raising a million dollar endowment in this generation so that the foundation and its work can be sustained in perpetuity. To this end, everyone involved works hard, donates and guards and protects the foundation's resource with great duty of care.

PART VI, #9 - No one in the foundation receives payment for their services. Reimbursements are given only for items purchased for projects and programs only when receipts are submitted. A list of members of the Board of Directors is attached.

PART VI, SECTION C, #19 & #20 - All Board members get copies of internal documents - Bylaws, Policies, job descriptions and others as generated. The Board and Committees meet twice a year and receive copies of all reports from all committees and Officers (the Executive Committee. Major decisions are made and voted on during these meetings, and reports given at that time include the actions and decisions made outside of the main meetings. Also, actions taken by members are reported in real time. Financial statements are sent to the Board monthly by the Finance Committee as well as an end of the year report. Major financial decisions require the entire Board's approval.

Meetings are open to the public.
