SCHEDULE D, PART IV, LINE 2B	APA is affiliated with 54 divisions that represent major scientific and professional interests. The divisions operate independently from APA. Upon request, APA will act as a collection agent for dues and assessments paid by the divisions members. Amounts collected and held by APA on behalf of the divisions are included in current assets and current liabilities in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position. Cash and cash equivalents and investments held on behalf of the divisions totaled $12,610,632 and $10,763,658 as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	ASC 740 Footnote APA recognizes tax liabilities when, despite the managements belief that tax return positions are supportable, APA believes that certain positions may not be fully sustained upon review by tax authorities. Benefits from tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement. To the extent that the final tax outcome of these matters is different than the amount recorded, such differences impact income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made. Interest and penalties, if any, related to accrued liabilities for potential tax assessments are included in income tax expense. APA is generally no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years ended December 31, 2015 and prior. Management has evaluated APAs tax positions and has concluded that APA has taken no material uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance.
