Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Grants are given to well known or local organizations that the board is familiar with and are awarded by the board of directors based on various factors. The board is qualified to evaluate the merit of the grant applications and ensures the funds are used for their intended purposes. Health care workers who suffer from a hardship or natural disaster can receive aid through the compassion fund of the foundation. The board of directors evaluates each request and determines the amount and type of aid the individual needs
