Part IV, Section A, Line 1 - Supported Organizations Not Listed by Name

There are 7 organizations listed in the governing documents that receive 70% of the support funds distributed by the trust. The remaining 30% is given at the discretion of the trustee. The trustee receives letters from various organizations throughout the year requesting support. The trustee then chooses those organizations he feels most needs the support of the trust. Once the trustee decides which organization he will send support to, he requests a copy of their 501(c)(3) IRS Exemption notice to confirm the supported organization's non-profit status. Once non-profit status is confirmed he will submit a check for an amount he determines necessary for the supported organization. There is a continuing relationship the trustee has with several discretionary supported organizations. The trustee has given funds to several organizations each year that are not required by the governing documents and these organizations have come to rely on these funds from the trust.

Part IV, Section A, Line 5a - Changes to Supported Organizations

There are 7 organizations listed in the governing documents that receive 70% of the support funds distributed by the trust. The remaining 30% of the support funds are given at the discretion of the trustee. For 2019, the trustee distributed funds to ten out of eleven of the organizations that he supported in 2018. The trustee was able to give a greater amount of funds to those supported organizations in 2019 compared to 2018. The trustee gave the required percentage of funding in the governing documents to the Farmville Public Library, but he also gave them additional funds from his discretionary percentage to help with their new building project.

The following supported organization was removed in 2019:

1.) Fellowship of Christian Athletes - EIN 44-0610626

No supported organizations were added in 2019.

Part IV, Section D, Line 2 - Explanation of Working Relationship

There are 7 supported organizations that are required to receive donations in the governing documents. (Per a line item in the governing documents the trustee may change these percentages from time to time.) These organizations expect to receive support from the trust every year. The majority of organizations that the trustee can choose at his discretion to
