Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Regional Organizing Programs Project Souths regional organizing programs and leadership development initiatives increase the number of skilled leaders and organizers with the capacity to implement cross-issue organizing efforts, develop root cause political analysis, and create long-term movement building strategies Project South serves as the facilitative anchor for the Southern Movement Assembly, an organizing process that convenes participants working in all levels of Southern social justice organizations in order to strengthen movement-wide infrastructure through communication, education, and coordinated organizing strategies throughout the year Project South coordinates the Black Radio Project, a network of Black and community-owned radio stations across 10 states in the U S rural and urban South to develop high quality content and support communications infrastructure across the region Additionally, the BAM (Building A Movement Institute) supports organizers and leaders to deepen analysis and coordinate regional strategies

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Mutual Aid Liberation CenterIn partnership with the Georgia Citizens Coalition on Hunger, Project South launched the Mutual Aid Liberation Center in July 2017. The two-story building and 4.7 acres of land is located in one of the most historic neighborhoods for African American history in the City of Atlanta. The shared project builds a base of Black residents, youth, and community members in South Atlanta to protect the land, provide education, address and prevent violence, provide emergency relief in the wake of crises, and engage grassroots political power. The Umoja Garden is a working farm that engages community members in agricultural learning opportunities and produces fresh vegetables for communities without access to adequate healthy food options. The weekly programming serves over 1,500 community members every year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Legal & AdvocacyProject Souths legal and advocacy work provides direct consultation, representation, training, and legal field development to support vulnerable communities facing discrimination, legislative marginalization, and repression including immigrants and migrants without documentation, refugees, Muslim communities, and Black young people. The Legal & Advocacy arm of Project South connects legal and advocacy work and movement lawyers with grassroots organizations, focused on immigrants rights and defending Muslim communities. Through meaningful partnerships with universities, law schools, law firms, and organizations with legal strategies, Project South grows the legal infrastructure for social justice in the South.

Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

	Yes	No
11 Has the organization accepted a gift or contribution from any of the following persons?
a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b A family member of a person described in (a) above?
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
