Part II, Line 5 - Monitoring and Enforcement Policy

Conservation Florida is wholly committed to good stewardship, which necessarily includes effective and quick resolutions of violations or non-compliance with conservation easement terms. The Organization approaches easement violations and non-compliance by comprehensively analyzing all aspects of the easement and taking into consideration other facts and circumstances.

Part II, Line 9 - Accounting for Conservation Easements

The Organization received all of its easements via donation. The Organization does not report donated easements as revenues or as assets. The footnotes to the Organization's financial statements include the following related to conservation easements: "Property owners grant to the Corporation conservation easements that restrict the owner's use of the land in perpetuity. Some allow the Corporation to conduct research and studies on the properties. At December 31, 2018 the Corporation held easements on six properties for a total of 731 acres. Since the Corporation does not receive any rights to the property, the Corporation does not report a value."

Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses for Endowment Funds

Endowment funds are to be invested in perpetuity, the income from which is to be used to monitor and enforce conservation easements. In the remote instance of a legal challenge to a conservation easement that is not covered by insurance, principal of the endowment may be used to defend the easement.

For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Corporation invested its endowment assets in savings accounts and an investment account. During the year ended December 31, 2019, the Corporation discontinued segregation of its endowed assets and considers all earnings appropriated for expenditure at December 31, 2019.

Part XIII - Supplemental Financial Information

Conservation Florida records lands conserved at cost if purchased or at fair value at the date of acquisition if all or part of the land was received as a donation. Fair value is estimated with reference to appraisals, taxed assessed value and other pertinent information gathered at the time of acquisition and is not subsequently adjusted. Conserved land is real property with significant ecological, recreational, scenic, or historical value. These properties are managed in an effort to protect the natural biological diversity of the property. Donated properties are often subject to certain conditions, covenants and reversionary clauses that prohibit the sale and restrict the use of the properties. For this reason, these properties are reflected in donor restricted net assets. At December 31, 2019, the Corporation held one property for a total of 476 acres.

Conservation Florida (CFL) is an accredited land trust.

Accreditation is a mark of distinction in land conservation. It is awarded by the Land Trust Accreditation Commission, an independent program of the Land Trust Alliance, to land trusts meeting the highest national standards for excellence and conservation permanence.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

From the Florida Panhandle to the Everglades Headwaters north of Lake Okeechobee, our projects are shaping Florida's Conservation Future. The large, statewide projects we target have global significance and will help protect some of the rarest habitats and species in the world.

Land Protection Program -

Conservation Florida's Land Protection Program protects lands with natural, agricultural, and community conservation values. Our work creates, expands, and links conservation lands. We focus on projects that provide habitat for the survival of Florida's iconic species, recharge drinking water or benefit other hydrologic functions, offer outdoor recreation, and other community benefits. We also help landowners with working ranches, farms and timberlands to keep their land in production for generations to come. We work statewide to serve communities that are not served or are underserved by local land conservation organizations. We have expanded our service areas to reflect our statewide, landscape-scale approach to conservation.

In 2019, we served dozens of landowners, providing expertise to guide landowners through the land protection process. We continued working on our conservation portfolio of active projects throughout the state, including the acquisition of D Ranch Preserve, 476 acres of important habitat adjacent to the Lake Monroe Conservation Area, and the facilitation of the protection of the Wakulla Caves property, which added 717-acres to the Wakulla Springs State Park.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Accomplishment

Advocacy, Education and Outreach Program

Our education, events, and advocacy efforts are aimed at supporting our vision of a Florida where protected lands:

- Form a statewide conservation corridor
- Support healthy populations of native plants and wildlife
- Provide places to recreate and connect with nature
- Contribute to a strong economy
- Support the success of working family farms and ranches
- Replenish and safeguard Florida's freshwater supply

Designed to promote land conservation through effective education and advocacy, CFL hosted its annual Conservation Florida Bioblitz, a citizen science event in which participants logged hundreds of observations, identifying native species in a critical wildlife corridor. From black bear footprints to native wildflowers, participants aged 18-months to 85 years documented an abundance of wildlife on four expert-led hikes.

CFL hosted its Conservation on Tap series, an educational series throughout the state in partnership with local breweries designed to educate and inspire communities to support land conservation initiatives.

Furthermore, Conservation Florida continues to prioritize partnerships, working with a wide array of partners to support statewide land conservation.

We continued to advocate for meaningful and consistent funding for land conservation at the State and national levels, meeting with policy and change makers to promote the importance of land protection in Florida.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990
Conservation Florida's Form 990 is prepared with the assistance of a CPA. The completed return, including all schedules and statements is provided to the executive director for review. After revisions are made, the entire Form is provided to the board of directors for their review and approval prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy
New board members, staff members and volunteers are required to sign CFL's conflict of interest policy (COI) at the time of their orientation to the organization. Board members renew their COI every three years if they choose to renew their board term. To monitor and enforce compliance, each year, as a part of the preparation of the Form 990, each board member answers a questionnaire aimed at determining if any conflicts are present. If conflicts are found, they would be dealt with according to CFL's COI policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
Compensation is evaluated annually by the Board of Directors. The Board uses the Land Trust Alliance's most recent salary survey report and the data provided in the "Central Florida Nonprofit Compensation and Benefits
