The Homes are independently operating households with a House Parent and 12 to 15 children living in each Home, thus allowing House Parents to provide a nurturing family-type setting for the children. Through the Childrens Homes, the children received safe and comfortable shelter, nourishing food more than 3 meals per day, clothing including school uniforms, and emotional and spiritual care and support. Of the 6 childrens homes, one is for special needs children. There are three trained nurses who provide 24/7 specialized nursing care to each child and house moms provide care to these children, treating each one of them with the utmost dignity, respect and love. The Special Needs House provided care to 13 children with special needs and physical disabilities ranging from moderate to severe. These are children that are often discarded by their families and society, and would have nowhere else to live.
