The Ministry receives updates through emails or in speaking directly with the directors or staff of those U.S. Ministry Organizations and updates are also obtained from their ministry newsletters, websites and acknowledgement receipt letters. A record is kept of those program services and prior to the annual board meeting a Ministry Review is provided to the Board of Directors. This Ministry Review provides an in depth report of each U.S. Ministry Organization's missions projects and the details of their specific purposes, goals and accomplishments. In addition the prior years accomplishments also appear in this Ministry Review so as to provide the growth, progress and impact of those respective projects. During the annual board meeting this Ministry Review is reviewed and then the Board of Directors express their comments about specific projects.
