Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Reports conservation easements (Part II, line 9)	The Organization has a written Conservation Easement Amendment Policy, Conservation Easement Enforcement Policy, and a Conservation Easement Monitoring Policy. The Organization records their easements at their appraised value. Support and expenses without donor restrictions are recognized in equal amounts based upon the fair value of the easement. The Organization is obligated to monitor easements to ensure that the restrictions are maintained. The Organization monitors these easements in the normal course of its operations and associated costs are expensed as incurred. The estimated value of the easements are not included in the statements of financial position because the easements do not represent a future economic benefit to the Organization. The following is the related footnote from the Organization's audited financial statements: Donated conservation easements represent rights to restrict the use, access and development of certain properties. Support and expenses without donor restrictions are recognized in equal amounts based upon the appraised fair value of the easement. The Organization is obligated to monitor easements to ensure that the restrictions are maintained. The Organization monitors these easements in the normal course of its operations and associated costs are expensed as incurred. The estimated fair value of easements are not included in the statements of financial position because the easements do not represent a future economic benefit to the Organization.
