Additional Data

Software ID: 19009572
Software Version: v1.00
EIN: 65-0648968
Name: COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF THE FLORIDA KEYS

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization is focused on making Key West and the Florida Keys a better place to live now and in the future by encouraging philanthropy and matching these acts of caring to the community needs. It works with individuals to develop philanthropic plans to improve the quality of life in the Florida Keys. The organization also supports nonprofit organizations by helping them build endowment and operating reserve funds. Additionally the organization works to strengthen the nonprofit sector and civic engagement in the Florida Keys through the Center for Nonprofit Excellence. During 2019, 6 new donor funds were established. During 2019 357 gifts were recorded and 212 grants were made. The majority of grants were recommendations by donor advisors and not-for-profit organizations. Grants in 2019 supplied nutritious meals for low-income, disabled and homeless youth and seniors, protected the coral reef ecosystem, offered primary care medical services for uninsured families, helped build affordable housing, underwrote youth fitness programs and services for athletes with intellectual disabilities, provided arts education opportunities in music, theater and visual arts, offered literacy tutoring, supported free pet care for low-income pet owners and much more.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Center for Nonprofit Excellence provides a wide range of resources and services that strengthen and support leadership and management of nonprofit organizations located in the Florida Keys. The Leadership Success Academy provides specific leadership and governance skills building to nonprofit board members. During 2019 there were 51 participants representing 47 organizations. This marks the 12th consecutive year for the Leadership Success Academy that has trained over 500 members of the Florida Keys community to be more effective board leaders. To recognize volunteer efforts, the organization for the last 19 years has conducted an Unsung Heroes / Volunteer of the Year luncheon to recognize the accomplishments of individuals serving nonprofit organizations. During 2019, there were 381 attendees representing 85 nonprofit organizations throughout Monroe County. A grant writing workshop for nonprofit staff and board members was conducted in cooperation with United Way of the Florida Keys and Ocean Reef Foundation. Preceding this workshop, a donor-advisor convening brought together decision makers to help them better understand community needs. In addition, the program offers a work space and conference room for nonprofit organizations without charge.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The third program is to identify and address unmet needs in the community and work with other community organizations and individuals to meet those needs. Activity in 2019 focused on emergency assistance and continuing recovery from the impacts of 2017 Hurricane Irma. Early in the year, grants were provided for food assistance to government employees impacted by the December 2018 federal government shutdown. Throughout the year, the organization continued acting as fiscal agent for Monroe County Long Term Recovery Group (LTRG). In cooperation with local nonprofits, church organizations and emergency funding sources, assistance was provided for residential repairs, primarily in the Lower Keys. In cooperation with Monroe County, LTRG constructed a Volunteer Village on Big Pine Key to house workers travelling to the Florida Keys to assist rebuilding and repairing homes. Program service fees were received from volunteer groups to offset utility costs for accommodations.

Facts And Circumstances Test

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule A, Part II, Line 1	During 2014 and 2015 the organization received partial distributions of a bequest from an estate. The amounts received were $2,027,271 in 2014 and $539,826 in 2015. The donor was never a foundation manager or a disqualified person with respect to the organization. The donation was cash that was not restricted. The organization has substantial donations besides this bequest and anticipated future donations to support operations. The organization has consistently met the one-third public support test. No person related to the deceased has the ability to substantially influence the operations of the organization. The organization has a board of governors who are community leaders representing a cross section of the Florida Keys. In the tax periods prior to 2014, the organization has not treated any gift as an "Unusual Grant" in order to meet the one-third public support test. Because this donation would substantially lower the historical public support ratio, it has been excluded as an "Unusual grant."

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	The organization accepts donations and arranges for investment management services for not -for-profit organizations under terms of fund agreements or memorandum of understanding. T he board of governors has variance power over distribution of donations made to funds that name as a beneficiary the not-for-profit organization. The variance power will be exercis ed in the event that restrictions under the agency fund agreement becomes, in effect, unne cessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable needs of the commun ity or area served. The organization also acts as fiscal agent to Monroe County Long Term Recovery Group (LTRG). The organization accepts donations on behalf of LTRG and distribute s funds according to requests from the LTRG executive committee. Because the organization reports all donations received, investment earnings, grants made and other costs of these agency funds in the appropriate schedules on Form 990, there is a reconciling item for the change in net assets related to the change in the liability of funds held as agent.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Permanent endowment funds were established by donors for a particular field of interest or to benefit a specific not-for-profit organization. The majority of these funds are intended to support arts & culture. Other donor restricted permanent endowments support general philanthropy, health and human services, education, the environment and animal welfare. Board designated endowments are held to sustain administrative operations of the organization, to support the Center for Nonprofit Excellence and for general philanthropy.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	CFFK is tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1) of the Code. However, subject to certain exceptions, gross income, if any, from an activity not substantially related to the performance of the organization's exempt function that constitutes a trade or business regularly carried on by the organization will be subject to the unrelated business income tax. Management believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken and as such does not have an uncertain tax position that would be material to the financial statements. CFFK's tax returns are subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, However, currently there are no such audits in progress. Tax returns for years before 2016 are no longer subject to examination. Management has evaluated the need for a reserve for income tax liability and determined that no reserve is required at December 31, 2019 or 2018.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Generally grants from donor advised funds are unrestricted for specific programs and general operating support. Grants made on a competitive application process require end of grant reports to detail how funds were used, number of people benefited and similar data. Scholarship grants are monitored by requiring students to provide proof of enrollment and disbursing funds directly to the college or university for the benefit of the student's account. Emergency Assistance grants were made in response to specific needs from the December 2018 Federal government shut down and continuing recovery following September 2017 Hurricane Irma. Applications for Emergency Assistance and Field of Interest awards were reviewed by a grants committee composed of board members and community leaders.
