Footnote for uncertain tax position under FIN 48 (Part X)	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statement of activities. As of December 31, 2019, APC had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. APC is generally no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2014.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990 governing body review Part VI line 11	A copy of the Form 990 is provided to board members before filing.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Conflict of interest policy compliance Part VI line 12c	Each year in January, all officers, directors, and management personnel are required to complete a questionnaire and provide details of any answers requiring further explanation. Additionally, all officers, directors, and management personnel must sign a certification stating that they have carefully read the conflict of interest policy and will promptly and fully disclose the circumstances of any potential conflict of interest to the proper superiors should one occur in the future. It is the ongoing responsibility of trustees, officers, and management personnel to scrutinize their transactions with outside business interests and relationships for potential conflicts and to immediately make such disclosures. Disclosures should be made to the president (or if he or she is the one with the conflict, then to the vice-president of the board), who shall bring these matters to the attention of the board. The board shall determine whether a conflict exists and is material, and in the presence of an existing material conflict, whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair, and reasonable as to the organization. The decisions on these matters are the sole discretion of the board. Additionally, board members will refrain from voting on any issues that they feel may cause a potential conflict.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
CEO executive director top management comp Part VI line 15a	The president of the board or a board compensation committee meets annually to discuss compensation for the coming year for the center director and other employees. Prior to a final vote on compensation, the board will collect the information on amounts paid by comparable organizations for comparable services, and propose such amount is acceptable. Otherwise, the board will consider collecting additional information or obtaining an independent, professional compensation opinion. The board vote is recorded in the meeting minutes within 60 days after the meeting, including the amount authorized and references to the comparison information. At least every six months, the president of the board will review the compensation package to assure that it is being followed and remains adequate.
