FEDERAL INCOME TAX-FIN 48 (ASC 740)	ICP, ICHDC and the Trust are recognized as exempt from Federal Income Tax pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for Federal Income Tax is reflected in these combined financial statements and neither organization is currently classified as a private foundation. As a sole member limited liability corporation, Dews Dell, LLC is a disregarded entity for Federal Income Taxes. GAAP requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the project's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are more likely than not of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more likely than not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. A reconciliation is not provided herein, as the beginning and ending amounts of unrecognized benefits are zero, with no interim additions, reductions, or settlements. The project is relying on its tax-exempt status and its adherence to all applicable laws and regulations to preserve that status. However, the conclusions regarding accounting for uncertainty in income taxes will be subject to review and may be adjusted at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, on-going analysis of tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof. The project recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as Income Tax Expense. The projects' informational returns filed are generally subject to examination for three years after the later of the due date or the date of filing. As a result, the project is no longer subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2016.

MONITORING AND ENFORCING COMPLIANCE WITH THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY	FORM 990, PART VI, LINE 12C The President reviews employees' responsibilities as they may relate to a potential conflict with employees on an annual basis and in the context of any specific assignments. In addition, there is an annual staff meeting during which the "conflict of interest" policy is reviewed and discussed. All staff members sign a certification that they have been provided and have read the policy, and stating whether there is any conflict or potential conflict of interest situation of which they are aware and, if so, the situation is stated. Staff members also certify whether a conflict exists. Due to the small size of the staff and the day to day working relationship between staff and management, potential or actual conflicts are identified as work assignments are undertaken, and otherwise reviewed by management throughout the year. Board members must disclose conflicts as soon as the conflict is determined and abstain from voting on related matters. At the annual board meeting, the board reviews the "conflict of interest" policy, with updates by legal counsel. A form is signed by each board member, certifying that the conflict of interest policy was reviewed, and either that there is no conflict situation of which the board member is aware of, if there is one, the situation is outlined and the manner in which it was addressed is detailed.
