Other	FORM 990 PART III 4a: CLINIC PROGRAM: Since 1994, Westminster Free Clinic (Organization) has been an innovative non-profit whose mission is to provide free medical care (including labs, diagnostic tests like mammograms, and medications) to the uninsured, homeless and working poor of our community through caring, compassion, community partnerships, education and student training. It is the goal of the organization to provide: 1) easy access to free health care to hard-to-reach populations facing transportation, language, cultural and financial barriers to care; and 2) provide high school students with a pathway to careers in health through exposure and hands-on training in the delivery of health, dental and vision care. WFC a nonprofit health and human services organization exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code). During the year ended December, 2019, over 10,000 local people were served through Westminster Free Clinic, 62% of whom are women and girls. 84% of all patients are between 18 and 61 years of age. Free services include primary care, medications, labs, mammograms, physical therapy and chiropractic services, podiatry, case management, acupuncture, nutrition counseling, dental services including cleanings, education and X-rays, with free and discounted dental treatment provided by our community partners; referrals with the organization's network of specialty care providers include free eye exams and glasses and much more. Volunteer Ophthalmologists screen patients at the organization for cataracts, glaucoma, and diabetic retinopathy and provide free cataract surgery at their practice. In addition to one-on-one and group counseling, mental health services include a weekly grief & loss program called Start Again, Not Over and parent empowerment classes that address domestic violence, raising healthy children and signs and symptoms of depression, anxiety and teen suicide. Electronic health records (EHR) and electronic dental records track patient progress and enhance the clinic's capacity and quality of care. The organization takes a whole person approach to health including weekly Zumba/yoga classes, food distribution through FoodShare, weekly cooking demonstrations through the organization's health education class, health literacy activities, homework help, clothing distribution, and over 800 backpacks with school supplies for students. These activities are all part of the organization's prevention strategies to address all social determinants of health which affect people's health and ability to thrive. The organization serves as a community care center with four key areas: 1) Medical, dental, vision, and mental health; 2) Whole-Person-Centered Preventive Health; 3) Pathways to Self-Reliance through high school and college healthcare training and education program, and 4) Health & Education Equity & Advocacy.

Other	PART III 4c: OUTREACH PROGRAM The organization's Community Outreach, led by bilingual teen interns in SALUD, serve as community health workers and screens people in the community for diabetes and high blood pressure. They also work with Latino markets in five cities to offer healthier food options. The organization's Corazones Sanos (Healthy Hearts) Program and Diabetic Specialty clinic empower clinic patients to take charge of their health, become health literate, educate others, and receive the extra support they need to achieve positive health outcomes. SALUD students also focus on education equity and provide presentations to English learning parents, as well as school administrators and teachers to help them know the challenges first generation students face, what they need to succeed, and how parents can help. They also share their own college goals and academic successes and create parental awareness of A-G requirements for their children to be eligible to apply to a 4-year college. The SALUD students' goal is to create a college-going culture in the Latino community, and to break down barriers to success for low-income students.
