Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Together Wisconsin provided project management and conducted several programs with partner organizations. Programs included implementation of an 8-week BLOC Captain fellowship for 15 part-time fellows and conducting of a community "Silent Canvass" and community organization program. Together Wisconsin worked with faculty, students, and election officials to build and expand upon a culture of democratic engagement and deduction of barriers to student voting. A nonpartisan public education campaign regarding the importance of civic engagement and calls to action on issues and legislation related to jobs, public schools, racial justice, climate change and transition to green economy was supported. A nonpartisan digital public education related to the April State Supreme court was supported. Implementation of "storytelling for change" that supports young people shaping their experiences into tools for change including a six-week summer leadership institute was supported. City of Milwaukee budget advocacy, voting rights and public education around the April Supreme Court election and State of Wisconsin Budget action workshops and outreach to ensure an accurate, inclusive 2020 census was supported.
