Explanation: Our form 990 EZ was originally filed via paper submission and sent out on May 15th, 2020. However, months later we received a letter stating "You didn't file a required annual tax return". After speaking with the IRS, a representative stated that paper submissions may have been delayed and to check back. We recently received another "failure to file" letter, which is why I decided to re-submit electronically. With COVID-19, I assumed there were some logistical issues with the IRS and reporting this year. I'm not sure if that was the case, however, being a young non-profit it is important we avoid any extra fees at all costs.
