Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.	Expenses (Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations; optional for others.)
28 HumanKind - HumanKind is a feature length documentary based on the work of author Riane Eisler with the goal to prove that a more caring world is achievable. We were able to secure a $100,000 grant to begin the project. Its a broad, wide-reaching film and we spent four months researching and writing the film. By the end of 2019, we read all of Riane Eislers books and dozens of additional books and articles. Through this process we were able to identify more than 50 potential interviewees for the project historians, neuroscientists, biologists, anthropologists, archaeologists, economists, world leaders, educators, psychologists, domestic worker advocates and child welfare advocates and we started the process of outreach to secure them. At the same time, we wrote the first draft of a 60 page screenplay for the film. The project is a hybrid documentary, which means it includes fiction parts as well as documentary parts, and this script is primarily the fiction parts of the film. Writing it is an essential step towards defining what documentary components of the project are necessary, as well as outlining the structure and mood of the film. (Grants $ 23,744) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . <input type="checkbox"/>	28a

Form 990EZ, Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. 29 Buffalo Resurrection - Buffalo Resurrection is a feature length documentary about the Blackfeet Nation's efforts to establish a wild bison herd on their reservation, one that can roam in and out of Glacier National Park. We have been working on this project since 2017 and its a long, slow process. We are following the story as it develops and we have no control over the speed of that process. In 2019, we completed three production (filming) trips to the Blackfeet Reservation for the film. 1)In March we traveled to the Reservation to capture what life is like for the bison in the depths of winter. Winter on the Reservation can be brutal and its important to show how the Blackfeet care for the bison in the winter, as well as show just how hardy the animals are, able to withstand minus temperatures. 2)In June we filmed Iinnii Days, which was the first of its kind a week-long Blackfeet celebration of bison. It included songs, games, talks and community meetings. It was an essential moment in the Blackfeet effort to engage the community in their effort to restore bison to their lands. 3)In August, we filmed with Alia Heavyrunner, a young Blackfeet woman who was an intern for the Blackfeet Buffalo Program. We filmed her out amongst the bison, feeding them, taking care of them, and heard her perspective about bison. This was essential to show how the bison's return is affecting all generations of Blackfeet from the youth to the elders. In addition to these shoots, we also edited a 13 minute demo of the film, which we will use to secure additional funding for the project. Finally, we traveled to New Mexico at the end of October to attend the American Bison Society conference. This is a triannual conference hosted by the Wildlife Conservation Society (WCS), a big partner of the Blackfeet, to discuss all things bison. We came to the conference to present our film work so far with the bison, as well as network and build alliances to help further the creation of Buffalo Resurrection. To all of these ends, the trip was a big success. We left the conference with a new alliance with the Wildlife Conservation Society a mutually beneficial partnership to help the film as well as the Blackfeet/WCS bison restoration effort. (Grants $ 13,882) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . ► <input type="checkbox"/>	29a
