Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

We seek out 501c(3) organizations which share a common interest or relate to a common demographic. As a board, we vote on a specific organization to formulate a grant from the contributions of our fundraising event(s). Those funds are passed along to the organization we feel most merits the grant as we research their provided materials (website, brochure, direct communication) to see the impact they have in the community. We also rely on word of mouth from those receiving services or benefits from the organization. Each year this process is followed in order to select a proper grantee organization for that year's grant.
