Maine Inside Out offers theater workshops at Maine Correctional facilities and in communities across the state of Maine .

Our teaching artists work with incarcerated and formerly incarcerated young people to create and share original theater, build leadership skills and practice transformative justice. In 2019, MIO held workshops for 28 participants at Long Creek. We held 16 events in the community, attended by more than 7500 audience members. MIO also held weekly arts workshops for youth returning home from incar carceration in the four urban communities that currently send the most youth to Long Creek (Biddeford, Portland, Waterville and Lewiston.)

In 2019, 72 formerly incarcerated youth met weekly with MIO facilitators to create and share new creative work, help plan and host our community events, and to mentor and support each other in times of challenging transitions. Maine Inside Out's Leadership Council programming offered professional trainings and paid work in workshop facilitation, artistic direction, and event planning and promotion, along with presentation and teaching roles for youth at events throughout the year.
