Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

SIREN - Research: The Charity sponsors original research into safety matters affecting the construction and other industries. Examples of research studies conducted include: the potential for virtual reality in certification testing; and the impact of OSHA's evaluation requirement on employers' efforts to qualify their crane operators.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

SIREN - Education: The Charity seeks to educate the industries it serves through educational programming. Examples include organizing the Annual Industry Forum on Personnel Qualifications; soliciting content for the tri-annual CONEXPO construction equipment education program; and creating and maintaining the online directories of Accredited Certification Organizations and the Most Similar Certifications Directory.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Workforce Development: The Charity is a main sponsor of the Lift & Move USA youth engagement initiative which seeks to promote the potential of the crane and rigging industries to high schools and other educational institutions as an alternative pathway to college. The Charity also participates in the governance of YouthBuild Philly, a "second-chance" high school with an active construction track, and the ACE Mentor Program of America.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:	The mission of the Charity is to foster the health, safety and well-being of persons working on and with, and persons, including the general public, in the general proximity of, cranes and other lifting equipment, through the education of (a) persons involved in the operation and maintenance of lifting equipment, (b) persons and organizations involved in the management, training and certification of persons involved in the operation and maintenance of lifting equipment, (c) persons and organizations involved in the design and manufacture of lifting equipment and (d) persons and organizations involved in the regulation of the operation, maintenance, design and manufacture of lifting equipment. The Charity works to raise awareness of health and safety issues caused by the operation of lifting equipment by persons who are not aware of best practices or properly trained in the safe operation and maintenance of such equipment and of the importance of testing and certification of such persons to confirm mastery of the practices and skills necessary for the safe operation of lifting equipment. Through its SIREN initiative (Safety, Information, Research and Education Network) the Charity conducts, and provides financing for, research directed at the safe operation of lifting equipment and at improving the quality of the testing of persons purporting to be skilled in the safe operation of lifting and other equipment. The Charity also seeks to provide access to educational programming on safe practices in the lifting industry and access to certification testing for the operation of lifting equipment for underserved populations who encounter financial barriers to accessing such programming or certification testing.
