What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

The purpose of the organization is to promote social welfare by defending victims of human rights abuses and other violations of international law in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory, particularly those committed with the aid of multinational corporations. It does this by researching and building strategies for legal actions; filing lawsuits in courts around the world; training budding human rights lawyers in this field of law; and conducting research, disseminating information, engaging decision-makers, and conducting advocacy in order to advance the law, improve access to justice, and develop best practices to progress the field of business and human rights generally. In this spirit, the output of the organizations work will have a substantial impact beyond the interest of any immediate litigants and its policies and procedures are representative of the public interest.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
