List the foundation's four largest direct charitable activities during the tax year. Include relevant statistical information such as the number of organizations and other beneficiaries served, conferences convened, research papers produced, etc.

Expenses

1	The Foundation had almost no charitable activities in 2019. Its purpose is philanthropy, doing good works and helping less fortunate people become all that God has made them to be. It intends to achieve its purpose primarily through partnering with high functioning public charities and private foundations. The Board spent the bulk of 2019
2	creating an operating and committee structure in order to develop operating policies and procedures with a plan to spend the first half of 2020 developing those policies and procedures. In doing so, the Board spent $1,100 in professional fees for legal and accounting advice and basic administrative supplies in order to prepare a filing for
3	IRS recognition as a charitable private foundation in 2020. These costs were born solely in support of the Foundation's charitable purpose.
