Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
To create a network of support that will help people suffering from substance abuse disorder. We wish to open doors and remove the barriers for people seeking treatment, ensuring healthy and sustaining patient recovery. We will strive to create pathways for patients to reassimilate into society by supporting the transitions from this disorder, to recovery, to independent living. Finally, we want to make this journey easier for people with substance use disorders and their family members. Developing a recovery community supported by recovery programs, meetings, job skill development and housing.
