Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	Funds are awarded to organizations that bring in special events, commonly sporting but sometimes other types of meetings or conventions, to help promote the event and ensure the event's success in bringing new visitors to the region. We do not ask for an accounting of such payments, other than requesting an invoice for payment. We know who we have paid, and how much. For some events there is an evaluation to determine room nights generated and it is an internal management decision to determine which events hold the most promise of bringing visitors to the region.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Compensation for the President/CEO is determined through review of compensation for similar CEO's of other national destination marketing organizations, obtained via a confidential survey from the Destinations International. We also review nonprofit salary surveys provided by Employers Council. This information is shared with the finance/audit committee who determines and approves President/CEO compensation under delegation of the Board of Directors. Compensation for all other employees of the organization are established by the President/CEO with input from the CFO. Under his employment contract, the President/CEO has sole authority to set employee pay, within guidelines (budget) set by the Board of Directors. Employee pay amounts are provided to the finance/audit committee for review and discussion, with the President/CEO having final authority. Comparable data from DMAI and MSEC are used, along with President/CEO input on employee value.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part VIII; Line 2	On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization characterized an outbreak of novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19") as a pandemic and on March 13, 2020, the United States declared a national emergency. Potential impacts to the Organization include disruptions and restrictions on the ability of employees to work, as well as travel and other restrictions imposed by governments. COVID-19 is also expected to adversely affect economies and financial markets in the United States and throughout the world. The extent of the impact on the Organization's financial position, revenues, operating results and cash flows will depend on future developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak, which are highly uncertain. It is likely that the Organization's revenues from members will be lower in 2020 and 2021, and that revenues from contractual arrangements with the City of Colorado Springs will be lower in 2021.
