What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)3 of the internal revenue code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Our primary activities include employing multi-faceted community and economic development strategies to bolster economic parity and improve the quality of life for very low to moderate income families in targeted areas. Thus, we seek to build infrastructure to house programs that help build pathways out of poverty as well as affordable housing while creating liveable wage jobs. We have created plans for and are now seeking funding for a revenue generating social enterprise that will ensure our target communities become thriving business, residential, and cultural centers. We also raise funds to grow the endowment of a scholarship at Bethune-Cookman University.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
