Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Grants may only be distributed to 501(c)(3) organizations. Before distributions are made the organization is vetted by obtaining a copy of their IRS Determination Letter, contact information, and a copy of their mission statement. We obtain the organization's IRS status on GuideStars Charity Check, which combines information from the IRS Determination letter, the IRS Pub 78, and the IRS BMF (Business Master File) reports. [IRS Revenue Procedure 2009-32 allows grantors to rely on third-party resources, such as GuideStar Charity Check, to obtain required Business Master File (BMF) data concerning a potential grantee's public charity classification under section 509(a)(1),(2) or (3)] Our board approves all new organizations before distributions are made. Annually the board re-approves our entire list of organizations after we have verified that their 501(c)(3) status is still in good order. Distributions for grants made for restricted purposes are accompanied with a letter stating that the funds can only be used for that purpose. The letters also include the following notation: This grant is made to your organization through the Jewish Community Foundation of Southern Arizona (JCF). By accepting this check, your organization certifies to the JCF that: 1) No tangible benefit, goods or services are received by any individuals connected with the above-mentioned gift. Tangible benefits may include, but are not limited to dues (other than synagogue membership dues), event/admission tickets, tables, and meals. 2) Funds will not be used to discharge or satisfy a legally enforceable charitable pledge or obligations of any person. - And 3) no individuals connected with the above-mentioned gift will benefit from grants, loans, compensation or similar payments. Restricted purpose grants that are to be made annually from endowment funds require that the organization provide us with a report of how the funds were used before the next year's grant will be distributed. Grants awarded under our Community Grants Program require periodic reporting to ensure funds are being used for the purpose intended. Grants are not made to individuals.
