General explanation attachment	Part III Line 1 Adults with special needs age out of the school system at the age of 22 and their consistent peer group and teacher mentors are no longer a part of their life. Often their days are without purpose or meaning. Often they are lonely and isolated which can lead to depression. To positively impact the lives of these young adults, The Next Stop provides a program where they can experience a social, recreational and learning environment while interacting with their peers and volunteers. These kinds of opportunities have to be provided for these individuals as they cannot seek them out themselves. Being a part of the community of friends is vital to all people, including those with special needs.
