This group of volunteers operates from September to December each year collecting toys and money to purchase food boxes for over 350 families in mid-December. Another project is the Chena Tool Library, a cooperative established for individuals wanting to rent tools and machinery for Do-It-Yourself projects. Next year, we anticipate even more activity with the Friends of SS Nenana, who are working to renovate the only remaining wooden sternwheeler in the United States as part of a historical preservation project.
