Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Asset Building & Financial Capability - National CAPACD deploys strategies that improve the financial security of low- and moderate- income AAPIs and broaden opportunities for building wealth. Using multigenerational and culturally appropriate models, the program supports financial education, coaching, and financial products that allow participants to save while building credit. National CAPACD's asset building and financial capability program includes a cohort of organizations focused on supporting AAPI entrepreneurs and small businesses. In 2019, we trained more than 50 individual staff of member organizations, provided more than 2,800 households with one-on-one financial counseling or coaching through this effort and we released a series of reports documenting community need and the impact of our network in delivering culturally and linguistically competent services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Policy and Civic Engagement - National CAPACD works with our member organizations to advance policies that impact low- and moderate-income AAPIs and promote the equitable development of neighborhoods. We create opportunities for AAPI community leaders from member organizations to engage in the civic process and policy efforts. National CAPACD advocates on a wide range of community development issues and builds partnerships with other national advocacy organizations. We work to address the racial wealth divide and prevent displacement of low- and moderate-income residents and small business because of gentrification.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

At the convention we discuss programs, strategies, provide feedback and input on National CAPACD's policy and programmatic priorities, and plan for the work ahead to further our collective vision for social and economic justice.

(Code) (Expenses $ 106,252 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Membership and Capacity Building - National CAPACD is a coalition of member organizations who serve, organize and advocate for low- and moderate-income AAPI communities across the country. Due-paying member organizations benefit from opportunities to connect and convene with other groups across the country, receive technical assistance and capacity building support, and to collectively shape and inform our policy priorities. As a coalition, membership is the backbone of our work as we strive to remain committed and accountable to the organizations that sign on to be a part of our broader coalition.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

This work is implemented through direct advocacy efforts with elected officials and mobilization of member organizations to participate in these efforts.

(Code) (Expenses $ 133,450 including grants of $ 45,000) (Revenue $)

Small Business and Entrepreneur Support Program - National CAPACD is building the capacity of trusted, culturally competent, and linguistically capable community-based organizations through a combination of group training and individualized technical assistance focused on business counseling and micro-lending practice, as well as trainings and opportunities for peer sharing focused on planning and policy to support neighborhood economic stabilization. In 2019, National CAPACD also implemented and released the findings of community-based research in a report entitled "Small Business, Big Dreams: A Survey of Economic Development Organization and Their Small Business Clients in Low-Income Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities." This report tells a more accurate and nuanced story about AAPI business ownership in low-income communities.

In 2019, National CAPACD also implemented and released the findings of community-based research in a report entitled "Small Business, Big Dreams: A Survey of Economic Development Organization and Their Small Business Clients in Low-Income Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities." Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization has a conflict of interest policy that is distributed to the board for their review and acknowledgment on an annual basis. As part of National CAPACD's regular business practices, executive staff discuss on a regular basis potential conflicts of interest amongst board of directors, officers, and other key employees as per the written conflict of interest policy found in the organization's personnel manual. When an employee has any questions concerning whether a proposed action might violate CAPACD's conflict of interest, employment, honorarium, ethical standards or other policies, that employee asks for prior review of the proposed action by the Executive Director. The Executive Director may require that the request be put in writing, and responded to formally, in order to document the review process. Issues are addressed through the medium of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, and enforced as per the personnel manual.
