2		General Explanation Supplemental Information for Form 990-PF	In accordance with its vision, mission and grantmaking, the Crane Family Foundation dedicates resources to a number of evolving world-wide initiatives that respond to community needs. During 2018 these initiatives included: Relief efforts by assisting churches that are assisting those displaced from their homes due to natural disasters and continued support of Forward Edge International who has an on-going program of support for natural disaster victims. Continued support for the International Foundation in Washington DC. They have on-going efforts to bring leaders together around the teachings and principles of Jesus to promote reconciliation. They assist in the administrative duties associated with the National Prayer Breakfast held annually in Washington D.C. Support for various organizations who provide housing, education and rehabilitative services to people who are low income and needy, including people who have been rescued from sexual slavery, and those who are being rehabilitated after trauma and or incarceration. Continued support for Good Samaritan Ministries who offers free counseling to many in the United States and in Africa. Continued support for Friends of the Children, an after school programs for disadvantaged children.
