Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Energy and Tech Equity - Works to make sure that people at all income levels have access to affordable electric, gas, and information and communications technology services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Environmental Equity: All communities must have clean air and water, and one's life expectancy should never be determined by zip code, race or income. Though climate change and pollution hurt us all, communities of color suffer first and worst, while climate change policies have not adequately addressed these disparities. Greenlining's Environmental Equity team has led the drafting and passage of crucial laws to improve health and environmental quality for low-income communities and communities of color and bring "green" dollars to these communities, and works every day to make sure these policies get implemented effectively.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Leadership Academy - Thriving communities of color urgently need a generation of young people who are informed and engaged in addressing the most critical issues facing their communities. The GreenliningAcademy works to empower and develop the next generation of multi-ethnic leaders to advance racial and economic equity and create positive social change. We seek to develop a network of visionaryleaders ready to work across racial and ethnic lines to address America's most pressing problems and develop sustainable solutions rooted in equity and justice.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

(Code:) (Expenses $ 308,248 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Health Equity: The Health Equity program works to improve the health of communities of color by advocating for greater resources and services that impact health beyond just access to health care services. By improving the quality of housing, environmental concerns, job training, and health education, communities of color can benefit from economic opportunities and improved health outcomes.
