Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under the guidance, the Ministry may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Ministry and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year 2019.

Additional Supplemental Information	Before funds are provided to organizations or individuals in the United States, a proposal and complete budget is developed and approved by Quiet Hour Ministries evangelism committee. Once approved, the project is then placed within our yearly fundraising schedule. After funds have been raised for specific projects, the funds are sent via check to the organization or individual. Upon completion of their service on behalf of Quiet Hour Ministries, a written report and pictures are received from them on the effectiveness of their project and service.
