Legacy Fellowship partners with an in-country NGO for community health projects. They are currently working in multiple communities

In these communities, more than 100 Community Health educators have been trained. These Educators help raise awareness with various community associations. Topics include malaria prevention, diarrhea treatment and prevention, importance of clean water, health of pregnant women and newborns, and small-scale gardening. Much time has been devoted to the conception of teaching materials and translation into national languages that are appropriate for the members of the communities.
